

ALBA SANTOS

Alba Santos is a singer, soloist, and band leader. Her specialty is jazz and bossa nova and has completed several successful contracts for the most famous five-star hotels and cruises all over the world. Her last jobs residencies were for Shangri-la, Jumeirah, and Royal Caribbean. Her skills as a singer and a band leader go far from just singing the classic standards, but she also has a charming personality that will bring joy and distinguished class to any venue. She has amazing scat singing skills that turn her into a brilliant musician. Her shows have been embraced by American, Asian, and European audiences, because she knows what the people want to listen to, from jazz to bossa nova and boleros. She has more than 300 songs on her repertoire which makes every night a unique experience. She has also brought her show to important jazz venues around the world as Blue Note.