

OFFICIAL BIOGRAPHY

CAESAR BAND

Five-piece Mexican party band

Caesar Band is a young five-piece Mexican party band made up of one female performer and four male musicians. The group presents a broad mix of Rock, Ballads, Pop, Reggae, Salsa, hits from the 1960s through the 1990s, current music and Latin American and European styles.

Their live presentation is built around versatility, audience interaction and a repertoire designed to keep guests dancing and smiling. The members bring experience from hotels in Cancun and the Riviera Maya, theatre productions, live presentations, lobbies and event performances.

PROFILE HIGHLIGHTS

FORMAT	5 performers - 1 female, 4 male
STYLES	Rock, Ballads, Pop, Reggae, Salsa, Latin & international hits
EXPERIENCE	Hotels, theatre shows, festivals, lobbies and events

BAND MEMBERS

Celeste German
SINGER

Celeste developed an early interest in singing and dance, participating in family performances, church choirs and later a Jazz Big Band. With training connected to the Conservatory of Fine Arts and the Faculty of Music, she developed her musical identity and songwriting. She also launched the solo project Del Cielo, with three songs from the EP “Calle 23” released on digital platforms.

Octavio de Moraes
GUITAR / SINGER

Graduate in instrumental performance of contemporary popular music, with honors from the Fermatta Music Academy and diplomas in Jazz and contemporary guitar. A session guitarist and bassist, he has performed at major Mexican festivals including Tecate Bajío, Pal Norte and Coordinada, worked as a guitar teacher, collaborated with multiple artists, and contributed guitar and bass to more than 50 recording productions.

Abimael Vazquez
DRUMMER / SINGER

Musician, composer and percussionist from Yucatan who began his artistic career at 14 in bars, restaurants and cultural events. After moving to Mexico City, he worked with recognized artists and creators including Horacio Lanzi, Enrique Guzmán Yáñez “Fato”, Lalo Manzano and Francisco Céspedes. The source also notes a collaboration with David Blasco, son of producer Miguel Blasco.

Jorge Casas
BASS PLAYER

Mexican bassist with extensive theatre-show experience and a strong reputation for precision. A graduate of the Higher School of Music, he has performed with leading orchestras in Mexico at concerts and international festivals, as well as in hotels in the Riviera Maya and Cancun.

Cesar CasasKEYBOARD PLAYER

Mexican pianist, arranger, musical director and composer with broad professional experience. He has worked with leading groups in Mexico and Cuba, participated in national and international festivals, and served for five years as musical director and pianist for the Iberostar hotel chain in Cancun.