

HIST COVERS

Versatile Live Entertainment
from Havana

A dynamic six-piece band combining strong musicianship, engaging stage presence and a versatile repertoire for hotels, lounges, private events and international venues.

HAVANA • CUBA

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Hist Covers is a dynamic six-piece band from Havana, Cuba, bringing together experienced professional musicians with a shared passion for live entertainment.

With its youthful image, strong musicianship and engaging stage presence, the band has built valuable experience performing in hotels, bars, nightclubs, private events and entertainment venues. Each performance is carefully adapted to the atmosphere, audience and expectations of the client, allowing Hist Covers to move effortlessly between elegant background music and energetic party entertainment.

The band's versatility is one of its greatest strengths. Its extensive repertoire includes timeless international classics, contemporary hits and popular favourites across a wide range of musical styles. Songs can also be presented in full-band, acoustic or instrumental arrangements, offering flexibility for cocktail receptions, lounges, dinners, celebrations and high-energy evening shows.

Featuring female and male lead vocals supported by guitar, keyboards, bass and drums, Hist Covers delivers a polished and complete live sound. The chemistry between its members, combined with their creativity and professional experience, allows the group to integrate naturally into a variety of productions and entertainment concepts.

Fresh, adaptable and audience-focused, Hist Covers offers an exciting Cuban live-music experience designed to connect with international guests and bring energy to every stage.