JP Miles is primarily a Jazz vocalist, she performs and records in a wide variety of styles including R&B, traditional pop, and house music. This American Jazz and R&B singer is noted for her excellent voice control and unique sultry delivery. JPs' voice has a unique deep sound that delighted audiences with its distinct phrasing and exacting diction. This southern diva has been described as an "extraordinary singer with a no nonsense attitude." In a deep, soulful voice, JP Miles sings with a life-affirming energy and intensity found in few other female vocalists. She has the ability to command pitch and dynamics across three vocal octaves. Her singing style is informed by the harmony and improvisation of jazz horn sections. JP's vocals draw upon her roots in gospel, jazz, pop, R&B, hip hop, disco and blues. In 1995, JP released her debut CD, featuring the track Just in Time. Like a gifted actress, JP always makes the lyrics come alive, combining exquisite elegance, impressive range and an effortless delivery. As a live performer, JP has entertained crowds around the world, in the USA, Russia, Western Europe and Asia. To name a few past
