

JAZZ, SOUL & WORLD MUSIC VOCALIST

MALIKA TIROLIEN

BIOGRAPHY

Professional artist profile

01 PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

JAZZ, SOUL & WORLD MUSIC VOCALIST A Guadeloupe-born, Montreal-based artist whose distinctive voice bridges jazz, soul, Caribbean roots and contemporary world music. BIOGRAPHY Malika Tirolien was born in Marie-Galante, Guadeloupe, into an artistic family and began recording in the studio at the age of eight. She moved to Canada in 2001 to study music and graduated from the University of Montreal

02 SELECTED HIGHLIGHTS

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

with a degree in jazz interpretation. From 2010 to 2012, Malika performed the lead vocal role in Cirque du Soleil's La Nouba in Orlando. Her work attracted the attention of Snarky Puppy founder Michael League, leading to appearances on the Grammy-winning

PROFESSIONAL REPERTOIRE

Malika later became the lead vocalist of Bokanté, collaborating with the Metropole Orkest on What Heat, which received a Grammy nomination for Best World Music Album. Her solo career and festival appearances have taken her across Europe, Asia and the Americas.

PERFORMANCE PROFILE

• Lead vocalist of Bokanté • Grammy nomination for Bokanté and Metropole Orkest album What Heat • Graduate in jazz interpretation from the University of Montreal • International festival touring across Europe, Asia and the Americas ARTISTIC STRENGTHS • Jazz, soul,

ARTIST INFORMATION

• Original songwriting and improvisation • International touring and recording Available for international hotel residencies, luxury venues, corporate events and selected concert engagements through .

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Selected engagements, experience and artistic profile

03 CAREER & EXPERIENCE

JAZZ, SOUL & WORLD MUSIC VOCALIST A Guadeloupe-born, Montreal-based artist whose distinctive voice bridges jazz, soul, Caribbean roots and contemporary world music. BIOGRAPHY Malika Tirolien was born in Marie-Galante, Guadeloupe, into an artistic family and began recording in the studio at the age of eight. She moved to Canada in 2001 to study music and graduated from the University of Montreal with a degree in jazz interpretation. From 2010 to 2012, Malika performed the lead vocal role in Cirque du Soleil's La Nouba in Orlando. Her work attracted the attention of Snarky Puppy founder Michael League, leading to appearances on the Grammy-winning collective's Family Dinner - Volume One and an extensive international touring relationship. Malika later became the lead vocalist of Bokanté, collaborating with the Metropole Orkest on What Heat, which received a Grammy nomination for Best World Music Album. Her solo career and festival appearances have taken her across Europe, Asia and the Americas. SELECTED CAREER HIGHLIGHTS • Lead vocalist in Cirque du Soleil's La Nouba (2010-2012) • Featured artist on Snarky Puppy's Family Dinner - Volume One • Lead vocalist of Bokanté • Grammy nomination for Bokanté and Metropole Orkest album What Heat • Graduate in jazz interpretation from the University of Montreal • International festival touring across Europe, Asia and the Americas ARTISTIC STRENGTHS • Jazz, soul, world music and Caribbean influences • Large-scale theatrical and festival performance • Original songwriting and improvisation • International touring and recording Available for international hotel residencies, luxury venues, corporate events and selected concert engagements through .

04 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

A professional artist presented by CR Productions International.

International hospitality, events and refined live entertainment.