

INTERNATIONAL TRIO | JAZZ TO CONTEMPORARY POP

EAST MEETS WEST

BIOGRAPHY

01 THE INTERNATIONAL TRIO

East Meets West are an international trio, comprised of Amy Hannam, Matthew Hurrell and Zhenggang See. Their unique blend of vocal and musical styles compliment each other perfectly to create a distinctive and interesting sound, capable of captivating any audience. Versatility is one of East Meets West's greatest strengths. Their large repertoire offers an eclectic mix of genres and styles from blues, rock and pop through to jazz, swing and reggae. Their performances are dynamic and engaging and often feature use of backing tracks and acoustic instruments.

02 AMY HANNAM | VOCALS

Amy is an accomplished singer and songwriter who trained in Music Performance and Production at the London Centre of Contemporary Music (LCCM). She has a wealth of experience performing live all around the UK for private events and corporate functions as a solo artist and a member of duos, trios and full party bands. Amy has also showcased her singing through several national TV appearances, including making it through to Judges Houses on the X Factor in 2013. In 2017 Amy was the lead vocalist on the closing track for 'Sonic Wars' - a video game released by multinational video game developer and publisher, SEGA. In 2016 Amy completed a 6 month contract on the Flagship Vessel of the Celebrity Cruise Lines Company, and in 2017 completed an 8 month contract as a solo singer onboard Genting Dream (Dream Cruises), returning again at the end of 2017 with Matthew to form a duo. Amy's versatile and extensive repertoire includes Jazz, Swing, Country, Motown, Disco, Pop, Rock, Soul and Reggae. Amy loves nothing more than performing for live audiences, taking them on an exciting journey with her soulful voice and welcoming stage presence.

03 MATTHEW HURRELL | VOCALS & INSTRUMENTS

Matthew Hurrell is a talented vocalist and multi-instrumentalist based in London. Matthew studied a degree in Popular Music Performance at Colchester Institute, and has been performing professionally for over a decade. In this time he has performed in a number of different formats from solo to duo/trio and full band. He has performed at festivals, concert venues and clubs/bars across the UK, as well as multiple weddings and private corporate functions. Matthew's music has featured on national television and he has completed multiple tours with other popular artists across the UK. He completed a contract at The Hilton hotel in French Polynesia and also on board the Genting Dream (Dream Cruises) as part of a duo with Amy. Matthew has a passion for music, which really shows in his performances. His specialty is acoustic, rock, soul, pop and blues but his 200+ song repertoire is extensive and versatile enough to suit any occasion and venue.

04 ZHENGANG SEE | PIANO

Zhenggang See is a gifted pianist who graduated from International College Of Music with a Bachelor Degree in Professional Music in 2012. Since then he has performed professionally across Asia as a session musician, working with other popular artists and musicians in a variety of different formats. As a trained jazz musician, Zhenggang has an extensive knowledge of musical theory and often incorporates this knowledge into his performances. Zhenggang is a highly creative individual and he excels at producing interesting and unique arrangements of popular songs. He has a vast repertoire of over 500 songs which he has accumulated over his many years of performing professionally. Zhenggang has also worked various contracts on land and at sea. In 2016 he performed onboard the Superstar Virgo as part of the Star cruises team. In 2017 he transferred to the Genting Dream to work on behalf of Dream Cruises, and later became part of the inaugural team to launch Genting's brand new vessel - World Dream.
