Major Feels is a top-end London-based duo, consisting of highly experienced and professional musicians: Sereta Baldwin and Juan Bautista Montano. The former is a bassist and vocalist who has been engaging audiences for over a decade. While she has mainly focused on long-term international contracts, she has also worked as a session musician, headlined festivals, played theatre shows for large audiences (Six the Musical, Burn The Floor), and has played bass for original artists, such as Gloria Gaynor. Juan Bautista Montano is a skilled multi-instrumentalist who plays piano, guitar, electric bass, and upright bass all to an extremely high standard. He has been working professionally since 2012 playing with a vast array of artists across genres and on stages of every size. He holds a degree in music and is highly trained, with very strong reading and improvisation skills. The two of them have recently completed a contract aboard the NCL Breakaway.
