

Professional singer since 1995, Steeve Matthews has a unique voice which will charm you. It is soft and powerful at the same time, what allows him to interpret the greatest success of Crooner with a personal touch that you will never forget. He is a genuine Crooner, authentic, brimming with charm and charisma!

This voice has earned him numerous awards in several interpreter contests . In 1996 he is given the chance to perform at the magnificent Palais Montcalm where several great singers appeared before. This show launched his professional career.

Subsequently he had been seen performing in different musical revue including American Crooner, Generation Crooners, Cocktail Crooner, Charming Singer, Champs Elysees, Christmas Crooner and several others so as his own retro band Nightbirds which was a great success by browsing all festivals of the province where he conquered his audience with his energetic and exciting performance.

He presented his talent in the big halls and cabarets of Quebec, as Capitole de Quebec on several occasions and festivals, corporate or private meetings.

Steeve Matthews still offers performances full of charm and authenticity, to the delight of those who appreciate the talent and music of the Crooner.

Steeve will convey his passion, besides being accompanied by excellent musicians as passionate as him, which guarantees a wonderful evening on the line.
